8. Please take two copies of the “Confidential Reference” form along with two return envelopes and distribute them to two people who would be willing to provide us with additional information concerning your personal and spiritual character. We would ask that these people be Christians, and if possible that they also fellowship here at Harvest. The coordinator for the ministry you are interested in will contact you as soon as he/she has received both references. We ask that you take responsibility for the postage on the return envelopes. This will encourage an immediate response.
